

130. When players leave the field to go back into the dugout, do they usually walk over or around the pitcher's mound?	Around, it is taboo to walk directly over it
131. The Reno Aces, Fresno Grizzlies and El Paso Chihuahuas play for what League in the AAA minors?	Pacific Coast League
132. What phrase is used for when the infielders practice throwing the ball to each other after recording an out?	"Going around the horn"
133. The Pacific Coast, the International, and the Mexican all belong to the highest level of minor league baseball, which is often represented by what three letters?	AAA or "Triple-A"
134. What Pennsylvania team has the Phanatic as their mascot?	Philadelphia Phillies
135. What American president started the tradition of the ceremonial first pitch at a Washington Senators game in 1910?	William Taft (since him, every president has thrown at least one first pitch)
136. What relentless group of fans terrorizes the opposing team at Yankee Stadium with antics such as "Roll Call"?	Bleacher Creatures
137. What competition takes place the day before the All Star Game?	Home Run Derby
138. What MLB team was supposedly plagued by the "Curse of the Billy Goat"?	Chicago Cubs
139. What person in a baseball game is often referred to as a "blue"?	An umpire

140. What Pittsburgh Pirate / San Francisco Giant won the National League's MVP award seven times?	Barry Bonds
141. In the year 1929, baseball players began wearing what on the backs of their jerseys?	Numbers
142. What prankster Mets player celebrated his 100th home run by running the bases, (in correct order) facing backwards?	Jimmy Piersall
143. San Francisco Giants' pitcher Gaylord Perry hit a home run less than an hour after man set foot on the moon in what year?	1969 (It was once said that they would put a man on the moon before he would hit a home run)
144. In 1968, the All-Star game was played indoors for the first time at what Texan stadium?	Houston's Astrodome
145. What team turned two triple plays against the Boston Red Sox in the same game in July 1990?	The Minnesota Twins
146. Name one of the two teams who faced off in the first World Series game in 1903?	Pittsburgh Pirates & Boston Americans
147. Barry Bonds scored 762 home runs in his career. For what team did he most recently play?	San Francisco Giants (he started with the Pittsburgh Pirates)
148. What place are you in if your team is "in the cellar"?	Last place
149. What is it called when two teams face off in two consecutive games?	Double header
150. Babe Ruth was the first member to enter the 500 Home Run Club in 1929. What Red Sox player became the second in 1940?	Jimmie Foxx

151. Name one of the first two winners of the Hank Aaron Award in 1999.	Manny Ramirez and Sammy Sosa
152. In terms of baseball, what does the abbreviation E.R.A. stand for?	Earned Run Average
153. Who won the Hank Aaron Award more than any other MLB player (four times)?	Alex Roderiguez
154. What Canadian city-based MLB team is an affiliate of the Minor League's Buffalo Bisons?	Toronto Blue Jays
155. Name two of the five MLB teams to be based out of the state of California.	L.A. Angels, Oakland Athletics, L.A. Dodgers, San Diego Padres, & San Francisco Giants
156. In what stadium did the Colorado Rockies play before they moved to Coors Field?	Mile High Stadium
157. Who was the only athlete to compete in both the World Series and the Super Bowl?	Deion Sanders
158. Over 31,000 baseball cards, the largest public collection, are on display in what New York museum?	The Metropolitan Museum of Art
159. What is replaced approximately every 5-7 pitches?	The baseball
160. Name one of the two MLB teams who participated in the longest running game that lasted over eight hours and 25 innings in 1984.	Milwaukee Brewers and Chicago White Sox
161. William "Candy" Cummings is known as the "Father of..." what baseball pitch?	The curveball
162. What is a "Louisville Slugger"?	A baseball bat

163. In what Pennsylvania city was the first American baseball stadium built?	Pittsburgh
164. What MLB manager led the Chicago Cubs to the postseason in 2008?	Lou Piniella
165. Who was the first MLB star to take home the "Rookie of the Year" Award?	Jackie Robinson in 1947
166. What two countries have participated in the "World" Series?	The U.S. and Canada
167. What canceled the World Series in 1994?	Players' strike
168. What Cincinnati Red had the highest of any batting average in a World Series in 1990? (Hint: His rating was a .750)	Billy Hatcher
169. What Phillies' team member hit five home runs in the 2009 World Series, tying with Reggie Jackson?	Chase Utley
170. While Lou Brock made his MLB debut with the Cubs, what team did he retire with?	The St. Louis Cardinals
171. In what year did two New York teams most recently face off in the World Series?	2000 (Mets vs. Yankees)
172. In what month does the MLB draft always take place?	June
173. Jackie Mitchell was a 17-year-old girl that once struck out Babe Ruth and what other star player back to back?	Lou Gehrig
174. What team has a mascot that goes by "Mr. Redlegs"?	Cincinnati Reds

175. A memorial featuring Shannon Stone and his son, after he fell to his death reaching for a fly ball, is dedicated to all the fans of what team?	Texas Rangers
176. Name one of the four teams who dominated the World Series in the 1970's.	Oakland Athletics, Cincinnati Reds, New York Yankees and Pittsburgh Pirates
177. Ty Cobb became famous for stealing home plate. Name one of the two teams he played for?	Detroit Tigers & Philadelphia Athletics
178. In the MLB, what is the highest recorded number of decades played by a single player?	Five- Nick Altrock and Minnie Minoso
179. What 10-time Gold Glove winning Mariner was also given the nickname "the Kid"?	Ken Griffey Jr.
180. During what inning do game attendees sing "Take me out to the ballgame"?	Seventh
181. What Rookie of the Year was given the nickname "Charlie Hustle"?	Pete Rose
182. Although retiring with the New York Mets in the 70s, who did Willie Mays first play for in MLB?	New York Giants (1951-1972)
183. Recent statistics claim that Americans consume 7 billion of these, a stadium staple food, between Memorial Day & Labor Day in recent years.	Hot dogs
184. What third baseman was also known as the "Human Vacuum Cleaner" and "Mr. Impossible"?	Brooks Robinson

185. This sportscaster has done considerable work for major networks. Since 2009, who has been announcing for the San Diego Padres?	Dick Enberg
186. Russ Hodges announced the "Shot Heard Round the World" in reference to what New York Giant player's winning home run against the Brooklyn Dodgers?	Bobby Thomson
187. What is the name of the current Pittsburgh Pirate mascot?	Captain Jolly Roger
188. What Yankees announcer is best known for his exclamation of "Holy Cow!" ?	Phil Rizzuto
189. Name one of the two fielding positions played by career Phillie, Mike Schmidt.	First & Third baseman
190. What occupation do you need to have in order to win the Ford C. Frick award?	Broadcasting (for major contributions to baseball)
191. What team's mascot is named the "Swinging Friar"?	San Diego Padres
192. What team did legendary sportscaster Harry Kalas announce for?	Philadelphia Phillies
193. ChemGrass was the original name, but it was later changed to AstroTurf after being used to cover the ground of what stadium?	Houston's Astrodome
194. What team did announcer Harry Caray last broadcast for?	Chicago Cubs
195. What state do the Kansas City Royals currently call home?	Missouri

196. What happens in a triple play?	Three outs are made on one play
197. What announcer has spent sixty years with the Dodgers, more than any other broadcaster with a single organization in any pro sport?	Vin Scully
198. What 14-time All Star Cincinnati Red has been called "the greatest catcher of all time" by ESPN?	Johnny Bench
199. As of 2014, who is the only player to win MVP title in both leagues? (Hint: he played for the Reds & the Orioles as an outfielder.)	Frank Robinson
200. Joe Jackson & Rogers Hornsby hold the number three and two spots respectively, but who holds the highest (career) batting average at .366?	Ty Cobb

NOTES: