

180. Where can you find the stern of a boat?	In the back / rear
181. What makes up a disco ball?	Mirrors
182. In what country can you visit Prince Edward Island?	Canada
183. Where are the 2016 Summer Olympic games scheduled to be?	Rio de Janeiro, Brazil
184. Who is the villain in the ballet, "the Nutcracker"?	The Mouse King
185. In what Asian country would you use "won" as a currency?	South Korea
186. By what other name would you know Bill Nye?	"The Science Guy"
187. Finish the slogan, "the best part of waking up..."	"Is Folgers in your cup"
188. Cirrus & cumulus are types of what?	Clouds
189. What is another name given to the widest part of a cobra's neck?	Hood
190. What type of animal is Rocko on the TV show "Rocko's Modern Life"?	A wallaby
191. What type of reference book is a collection of maps?	Atlas
192. There are approx. 1.6 kilometers in how many miles?	One mile
193. Who was Raggedy Ann's male counterpart?	Andy
194. Finish the Bill Engvall catchphrase, "Here's..."	"Your sign!"
195. What is an ocarina?	A wind instrument (type of flute)

196. How many ounces are in one cup?	8 (eight)
197. What author's real name was Theodore Geisel?	Dr. Seuss
198. What Scottish leader did Mel Gibson portray in the movie "Braveheart"?	William Wallace
199. What is the idiom you use when you need everyone's help? "All hands..."	"On deck"
200. In regards to the military, what do the letters "V.F.W." stand for?	Veterans of Foreign Wars

201. Finish the quote by philosopher Rene Descartes, "I think, therefore..."	"I am."
202. What slang term is used for the easiest slopes at a ski resort?	Bunny slope or bunny hill
203. What color is the word "Dunkin'" in the Dunkin' Donuts logo?	Orange
204. What branch of the U.S. military operates the charity "Toys for Tots"?	U.S. Marine Corps Reserve
205. What is the translation for the French phrase "café au lait"?	Coffee with milk
206. What New England state's motto is "Live Free or Die"?	New Hampshire
207. What type of alcohol is mixed with coffee to make traditional Irish coffee?	Whiskey
208. Sirius, Canopus and Alpha Centauri are the top three... what?	Brightest stars in the night sky
209. What do the letters in NATO stand for?	North Atlantic Treaty Organization
210. What two female reality stars had their own spin-off from the show "Jersey Shore"?	Snooki & J-Woww (Nicole Polizzi & Jennifer Farley)

211. Before it was a “hash tag”, what was the number (#) symbol called?	Pound sign
212. What is another word for the longest day and shortest day of the year?	(Winter and Summer) Solstice
213. What state in the United States was the first state admitted to the Union?	Delaware
214. What fictional people operated the starship “Bird of Prey” in Star Trek?	Klingons
215. What is the name of the main character in the Orson Scott Card sci-fi novel, “Ender’s Game”?	Andrew “Ender” Wiggin
216. What color is the pig in the Angry Birds game?	Green
217. What are you participating in if you run 42.195 kilometers?	A (full) marathon
218. Which has the longer average lifespan: an alligator or a crocodile?	Crocodile
219. What does the “e” stand for in $e=mc^2$ squared?	Energy
220. What is the largest ship in the board game “Battleship”?	Aircraft carrier
221. What does the “NASD” stand for in the Stock Exchange “NASDAQ”	National Association of Securities Dealers
222. What is the name of the main playable character in the role-playing game “Halo”?	Master Chief (also John 117)
223. What was the name given to an unknown serial killer in 19 th century London?	Jack the Ripper
224. What is the name of the system of measurement that measures the magnitude of an earthquake?	Richter scale

225. What was the adjective used for the 3 ½ inch computer disk?	The “floppy” disk
226. Who married Prince William in 2011?	Kate Middleton
227. What part of the movie-going experience does the Tomlinson Holman Experiment (THX) deal with?	Sound
228. What branch of our military are the Marines technically a part of?	Navy
229. What part of Batman’s costume is the cowl?	His hooded mask
230. In Super Mario Brothers, a player could collect coins. What could you collect in the Sonic games?	Rings
231. What couple discovered the elements polonium & radium?	Marie (Madame) & Pierre Curie
232. What controversial book made Harriet Beecher Stowe famous?	“Uncle Tom’s Cabin”
233. What type of mineral shares its name with a green fruit?	Lime
234. What Louisiana rice dish is traditionally made with chicken, shrimp & Andouille (smoked) sausage?	Jambalaya
235. What famous monoliths can be found outside of Wiltshire, England?	Stonehenge
236. If your internet video was “rickrolled” by the song “Never Gonna Give You Up”, what 80s pop star would you blame?	Rick Astley
237. What disease did Edward Jenner discover a vaccine for in 1796?	Smallpox

238. What long mountain range extends over seven countries in South America?	The Andes Mountains
239. What artist was largely responsible for the “pop art” movement?	Andy Warhol
240. Who played Frank Drebin in “The Naked Gun” movies?	Leslie Nielsen
241. What action star said, “I fear not the man who has practiced 10,000 kicks once, but I fear the man who has practiced one kick 10,000 times”?	Bruce Lee
242. What scientist was known as the “Father of Modern Genetics”?	Gregor Mendel
243. Alexey Pajtinov developed the first version of which popular puzzle video game in the USSR?	Tetris
244. What geometric term best describes visual designs using smaller copies of a shape over again, infinitely?	A fractal
245. What tranquil place did Henry David Thoreau retreat to?	Walden Pond
246. In which country is Angela Merkel the Chancellor?	Germany
247. Finish this commercial lyric: “My bologna has a first name, it’s -”	O-S-C-A-R
248. Kimberly “Sweet Brown” Wilkins became an internet sensation with what well known quote?	“Ain’t nobody got time for that!”
249. Dmitri Mendeleev re-organized and corrected what important scientific chart in 1869?	Periodic Table of Elements

250. In regards to simple machines, what is the point called around which a lever pivots?	Fulcrum
251. What company began by renting DVDs through the mail?	Netflix
252. The Indian Removal Act of 1830 is more infamously known by what name?	Trail of Tears
253. Arabic numerals replaced Roman numerals and introduced what new number that took the place of "nothing"?	Zero
254. In what country would you find the Bay of Pigs?	Cuba
255. What was the young group of actors in the movies "The Breakfast Club" and "St. Elmo's Fire" often referred to as?	The Brat Pack
256. If you are kneeling on one knee with your head bowed in prayer and an arm resting on your bent knee, what football player are you imitating?	Tim Tebow
257. Alfred Wegener proposed the idea of an ancient "super continent". What name was later used to describe it?	Pangea
258. What is a drawing called that uses satire and social criticism, often found in newspapers?	Editorial Cartoon or Political Cartoon
259. The design for which New York City skyscraper was based mainly on the shape of a pencil?	The Empire State Building
260. JNCO (jean-co) jeans were well-known in the 1990's for what two unique features?	Baggy Legs and Embroidered Back Pocket

261. Finish this movie quote: "Hello, my name is Inigo Montoya..."	"You Killed My Father, Prepare to Die."
262. What puzzle has you fill in a 9x9 grid with numbers so that each column, row and 3x3 grid all contain digits 1-9?	Sudoku
263. What is the product name for the modified dumbbell with springs at either end?	Shake Weight
264. Inoculations use what weakened or killed pathogen to prevent diseases?	Vaccines
265. People will spend an average of 25 years of their life doing what?	Sleeping
266. Which is lighter: steel or aluminum?	Aluminum
267. Ever since the completion of the Suez Canal, what sea connects the Indian Ocean and the Mediterranean Sea?	Red Sea
268. What ingredient is mainly used to turn a cucumber into a pickle?	Vinegar
269. What did Nicolaus Copernicus mean by his proposal of a heliocentric model of the universe?	Earth Revolves Around the Sun
270. Does ubiquitous mean commonly found or very intelligent?	Commonly Found
271. The Code of Hammurabi is one of the earliest existing sets of what?	Laws
272. In what sport was the word "caddy" first used?	Golf
273. A funnel cloud is indicative of what type of violent wind storm?	Tornado
274. What is the Hebrew translation for the Jewish "Day of Atonement"?	Yom Kippur

275. What was World War I called prior to World War II?	The Great War or the World War
276. Which president gave the "Mission Accomplished" speech in 2003, even though most of the fighting in the Iraq conflict had not yet ended?	George W. Bush
277. What movie is generally considered to be the first talking picture?	The Jazz Singer
278. According to a Japanese legend, a sick person will recover if they fold 1,000 origami of what type of animal?	Cranes
279. What video game features Lara Croft?	Tomb Raider
280. What meteorological phenomenon causes a warm current of water every 3 to 7 years in the eastern Pacific Ocean, causing unusual weather conditions all over the world?	El Niño
281. What was the first computer to defeat a world champion chess player?	Deep Blue
282. What gun was known as "the gun that won the West?"	Colt Peacemaker
283. Every episode of "Seinfeld" contains an image or reference to what superhero?	Superman
284. Kiev is the capitol of which European country?	Ukraine
285. In the board game "Trivial Pursuit", what shape are the colored pieces you can earn?	Wedge (or triangle / pie shaped)
286. Does "allude" mean to see something that is not there or to refer to something without directly mentioning it?	Refer to something without directly mentioning it

287. Lynda Carter is famous for playing what super heroine on TV?	Wonder Woman
288. What is a pair of identical symmetrical telescopes mounted side-by-side, allowing the viewer to use both eyes when viewing distant objects called?	Binoculars
289. Lake Victoria is the largest lake on which continent?	Africa
290. What soft drink boasts that you “can’t beat the real thing”?	Coca-Cola
291. According to Ray Parker, Jr., who you gonna call?	Ghostbusters
292. What term was coined in 2004 as a combination of iPod & broadcast, and refers to a radio-style program made available via the Internet?	Podcast
293. What popular PBS series features an aristocratic British family & their household servants in upstairs-downstairs situations?	Downton Abbey
294. What color are the letters “G” in the official Google logo?	Blue
295. Who is the white cat counterpart to the black cat, Chococat?	Hello Kitty
296. The Queen of Spades and what other card make up a “Pinochle” meld?	Jack of Diamonds
297. What edible nut is the base for Nutella?	Hazelnut
298. What job title also presides as the “Commander in Chief” over the U.S. armed forces?	The U.S. President

299. What popular news magazine publishes the yearly article, "Sexiest Man Alive"?	People magazine
300. How many bands are on the insignia for an "Airman First Class" in the U.S. Air Force?	2 (two)
301. What is the base for tzatziki?	(Greek) yogurt
302. Christopher Columbus never set foot in what is now known as the U.S. What current day area did he land in?	Central America and the Caribbean
303. What river flows through a record of 10 countries?	The Danube
304. According to legend, who was married to King Arthur?	Guinevere
305. Which athlete had the nicknames, "His Airness" and "Air Jordan"?	Michael Jordan
306. Who first stated "An object at rest will remain at rest; an object in motion will remain in motion until affected by an outside force."	Sir Isaac Newton
307. In what building can you find the "Oval Office"?	The White House
308. What type of energy powers a rickshaw?	Man power (usually by walking or bicycling)
309. What video game console was originally known by the code name "Revolution"?	The (Nintendo) Wii
310. Finish Dr. Maya Angelou's book title, "I Know Why the Caged Bird..."	"Sings"

